Mr. G. L. Mann
1019 Crawford Street
Flint 7, Michigan

Dear Brother Mann:

Last week I was engaged in a Gospel Meeting with the Marmaduke Church of Christ, Marmaduke, Arkansas. During that meeting it was my privilege to assist a family that lives in the Flint area in becoming Christians. I was told by them that they had attended the services at Bristol Road, therefore, the reason for my writing you concerning their baptisms.

The name of the family is Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Vowell, 706 Simcoe Avenue, Flint. Pegi Gene Vowell, the daughter of this couple, was also baptised. Brother Vowell is employed by a trucking company and drives cross country transports loaded with automobiles.

I feel that a visit from you or some of the members of the congregation would encourage this family, due to their apparent shyness, and would be the first step toward their becoming actively engaged in the Lord's work there.

My best regards to you and to your work. I was closely associated with the L. S. Maynard family, Flint, two years ago. Please give my regards to that fine family.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
